

ASHINGTON FOLK CLUB

February 2005

Brilliant !

What a great start to 2005 - February saw 30 performers in just two music packed nights. So much talent on display at Ashington Folk Club.

Old English

After the January break everyone seemed keen to renew friendships and enjoy the music. We had everything from classical through to pop, with some traditional, blues, contemporary and poetry thrown in.

Our own John Campbell, ably assisted by his good friend John Kaye on harmonica, gave us a great Spotlight night on 17 February. They took us through a magical mystery tour with a varied set of songs from the likes of The Beatles, Gordon Lightfoot and Muddy Waters to name but a few. It was so packed that floor singers were limited to one number each, but no one minded - we were all enjoying ourselves so much.

Changes Afoot ?

Rumour has it that there may be something of a facelift at the Institute. The Folk Bar should become an even better place to play.
