

ASHINGTON FOLK CLUB

May 2006

Pick 'n' Mix

This month at the Club we saw 15 performers which included a trio of pipers! Pipers Weird (named after an 1890s Scottish piece of piping music) treated us to a lively set of tunes.

It's always good to see new performers and we also had some new audience this month as well. We hope to see you again – get along and enjoy the great mix of talent at Ashington Folk Club.

In the Spotlight was Dave Anderson who gave us a great mix of lovely self-penned songs and also a few covers with songs by Mike Silver and Ewan Carruthers. Dave has a great talent and also a wonderful relaxed manner which all made for a great Spotlight. Thanks Dave!

Sound Bites!

On our website photo gallery and review pages you can listen to sound clips of performers. If you like what you hear then get yourselves along and enjoy the music live!

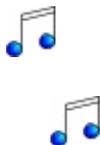

Pastures New...

It was time to say goodbye to Club regular Peter Murphy who has left us for pastures new in Macclesfield! We will miss his great voice, guitars and banter – but our loss is hopefully another club's gain. Good luck Peter.
