

ASHINGTON FOLK CLUB

April 2007

Busy Busy Busy

April has been a very busy month with 14 performers on the the first Thursday in the Folk Bar and 14 performers again on the third Thursday in the Bothal Suite! It's good to see so many of you.

As always there was a very good mix of traditional, contemporary and classical music and poetry too from the club's resident poet Ann Lunam-Cowan. All good entertainment.

We were treated to newcomers at the Club in the Bothal Suite with the two Daves who played a couple of instrumental pieces. Let's hope they come again.

Another reason they were there was to plug the upcoming Allan Taylor concert which is to take place at the Journal Tyne Theatre on the 5th May 2007. This is a concert Dave Lucas has arranged in recognition of Allan's help with the Guide Dogs For The Blind charity over the past two years.

Don't forget, Allan will be back at Ashington on the 15th November on our next Special Guest night. More details will follow soon. Be sure to put that date in your diary.

MySpace

Ashington Folk Club can now also be found on MySpace at www.myspace.com/ashingtonfolkclub

As well as a monthly slide show of pictures you can link to the myspace profiles of our "friends".

Snippets

- ★ Wedding bells are in the air - Keith Jones is to be married on 3rd August. Congratulations!
- ★ Jim Wigfield has a new guitar - a small bodied tobacco sunburst Tanglewood (that's three Tanglewood performers... Jim, Tony and Geoff).
