

ASHINGTON FOLK CLUB

October 2007

First Timers

19 different performers, an Ashington first, and yet another new face!

Newcomer this month was Robin Lewsey. Robin, who has moved north from Cambridgeshire, sings and plays guitar - we hope he makes Ashington his 'home' club.

A first this month for club regular Diane Green - she always sings unaccompanied, but blues guitarist Derek Greenacre played for her as she sang 'Lord Franklin'. Remember... you saw it at Ashington first!

Rounding Off 2007

Not long now till jiva hand over the reins.

It's a difficult task to plan for the final night of the year, but this year even more so. Jimmy and Val had planned to bow out with the last song of the night - but some club regulars have asked them to do an extended spot. So, time permitting, on 20th December there may be a 25 minute set from jiva.

They'll also be doing a support slot for Allan Taylor on 15th November. Tickets are now on sale; we've kept to the same low price as 2006 - £4 in advance, £5 on the door. There'll be an 'Early Bird' prize draw on the night, and some lucky person will have their ticket price refunded. More details at:

Plans For 2008

Pat, Doug and Ben Yeowart have already started planning for next year. The first club night will be on 3rd January, and we understand they intend to run fortnightly from then onwards. More details will no doubt follow soon.

We know that they can count on everyone's support, and wish them well in taking up the challenge. The club will be in good hands.
